GLENDALÉ COUNCILMAN BART TURNER HIGHLIGHTS CITY LIBRARIES ON “GLENDALÉ TODAY”

Glendale, Ariz. — Glendale Councilmember Bart Turner of the Barrel District showcases the city’s three libraries in his new edition of the TV show “Glendale Today”. Councilmember Turner talks to the city’s Chief Librarian, Michael Beck, and Community Services Director Erik Strunk about the services and unique features offered by each library, which include not only thousands of books, movies and music on file but also art and culture.

Councilmember Turner also discusses the history of the library system, the role of the city’s Municipal Arts Program and the Glendale Arts Commission, children and adult programs, volunteer opportunities and a behind-the-scenes look at how books are checked in and out. Viewers get a tour of the art and memorials in and surrounding the branch libraries at Main and Foothills and learn the significance of these displays.

The show begins airing April 17 at 8 p.m. “Glendale Today” is produced by staff from the city-owned TV station Glendale 11. The show will air daily on Glendale 11 as well as online via the city’s video library at www.glendaleaz.com/video and exclusive segments can be found on the city’s YouTube channel at www.youtube.com/MyGlendale11.
